

Broadway wins VGL October medal

By Dennis Fuller 09-10-2011

Beautiful conditions fronted golfers at Emerald Golf Club last Saturday for the VGL Medal comp which also doubles as the first day of the three round, club Championship.

By play's end, Travis Broadway (16) pocketed the medal with a nett score of 65. This also means that he heads the B Grade championship points in both the gross and nett sections. Following Broadway in the B Grade section is Eddie Kloprogge with 67, Graham Fergus 68 and Dean Shannon 69. He is also running second in the over-all club champion ratings. Look out Mr Yeats, he is coming for you!!

Ken Hill (15) held his nerve to the end when his nett 69 was good enough to give him the nod in A Grade from Dennis Fuller on 70. Martin Yeats leads the A Grade gross score with 80 from Peter Stevens on 83.

Evergreen, Brian McCoy (27) heads the C Grade crowd with nett 66 from Dean Aitken, Dave Harvey and Matt Johnson who all managed 71. McCoy also leads the gross leaders' board with 93 from Dean Aitken and Dave Jennings one back on 94.

Jeffrey Marsh was nearest the pin on the 4th, Hank Adams the 7th, Martin Yeats the 12th, Barry Cook the 13th and Kameron Geeves stashed away the pro pin cash on the 18th.

The ladies' event is also evenly balanced but it seems the ongoing solid form of Irene Scott could see her on the winner' podium. The most serious challenge appears to be coming from Daphne Aitken who has promised to hitch here skirt a bit higher and show some classic form over the next two weeks.

Wednesday's Obviously Fables Golf (OFG) saw Leigh Morison (13) win for the second week in a row with nett 65 from Dennis Fuller (11) on 67. John Piggott won the putting comp with steady putting.

Next week is the middle week of the championship and it will be interesting to see if all can hold their nerve and form. I have a sneaking suspicion that the current leaders just might hang on although, if things change at all, I will swing with the breeze in my predictions.
