

Jones boy dishes up 48 stableford points

By Dennis Fuller 10-04-2011

When Hank Adams (20) strode confidently into the clubhouse at Emerald Golf Club last Saturday with 47 stableford points in his kick, he had the confident demeanour of a winner. And rightly so. Little did he know that Peter Jones (20) was smiling the smile of a Cheshire cat because he had already entered 48 points into the book. Of course Jones won B Grade as well as overall and left Adams to pick up a single ball as a consolation prize for a slashing round of golf.

In a bad day for A Graders and a good day for Ben Balfour (14), Balfour's 35 points was good enough to lead in that pack when he won a three way count back from Ross Martin(10) and M Cole (15) from Redcliffe Queensland.

C Grade was won in another countback by David Aitken (31)with 41 points from David Mackey (28) also on 41.

Young, up and coming star, Travis Gerbes (21) came in with 42 and Ryan Aitken (18) carded 40.

Martin was nearest the pin on the 4th, Gerbes the 7th, Kameron Geeves the 12th, Dennis Fuller the 13th and Peter Clowes won the pro pin on the 18th.

The ladies comp was also won on a countback with Leanne Morison just pipping Stephanie Town also on 31 points.
