

Rain reigned over all

Or

Another Day When Scotty Did Not Win!!

By Dennis Fuller 06-02-2011

Last Saturday saw a day when only the hardy and waterproofed even tried to play golf at Emerald Golf Club. The 180ml of rain overnight at the course made things just a tad damp. The event was for the Wayne Degering VGL medal.

But this did not stop a dauntless David Downpour (12) as he strode to a triumphant win with a nett score of 68 to stand tall under his umbrella, looking like a recently diving cormorant.

Second on the day was Graham Soggy pants (12) who seemed to think that his floating golf balls were not exactly cheating but merely a creative manoeuvre to outwit his opponents. His nett 70 was a fine, if not slightly dodgy result.

Others to greet the judges in a dripping condition were Con Summerrain (12) on 71, Ben De Luge (12) on 73 followed in by Travis Flood (12) on 74.

It had to be noted that there seemed to be some similarity in the handicaps of these players and I am not entirely sure whether it was there handicaps or their penetrometer reading.

Nearest the pins were won by Johnathon Creek on the 4th, Ian Rivers on the 7th, Graeme Cascade the 12th, Jeff Marsh on the 13th and Ken Le Drenche picked up the sodden loot for winning the prop pin on the 18th.

The ladies comp was won by Lyn Torrent with nett 75. She also won the wet t-shirt competition as well to round out a good day for here.

Next Saturday is the first day of the three round Maurie Murphy Summer Cup and there is a hope that the weather will look a little more like summer and a little less like the Yarra River. This cup is named in memory of Maurie Murphy, who was the cornerstone of the club for many years and our most revered Life Member.
