

Pund pounds out a win

Or

Pound pounds out a win

Or

Not Bloody Pund again!

By Dennis Fuller

The clouds parted for the arrival of golfers at Emerald Golf Club last Saturday like the parting of the Red Sea. The course had recovered from the undrought mostly dry.

Ray Pund (16) saw the light in the sky and came in with 39 stableford points to win over-all on a countback from a resurgent Ben Balfour (18), who also had 39. Unfortunately for Balfour, Pund is also in B Grade so he came second in that count as well.

Dennis Fuller (15) headed the A Grade crew with 37 points while Dave Jennings (26) was king of the C Grade kids with his 35 points.

Others to hold their heads up were Steve Town and Con Whitlock, who both clocked in with 36 points.

Balfour was nearest the pin on the 4th, Matt Johnson on the 7th, Leigh Morison the 12th, Fuller the 13th and Peter Jones played a beautiful shot within a metre of the hole on the 18th to pocket the pro pin wealth.

Once again Nellie Bradshaw stood head and shoulders above the other ladies in their comp when she lead in the pairing of Daphne Aitken and Hannah Adams who were 2 points back.

One of the quarter finals in the match play championship was played with Dean Shannon falling over the line at 1 up over Peter Clowes.

On Wednesday at the Officially Fractured Golf (OFG) Ken Durnham was the star. In a stroke event he came in with nett 63 to win in a canter. A few strokes back were Sepp Kruppenacher on 68 and Ben Balfour on 39.

Next Saturday players front up to capture the September VGL Monthly Medal amongst many claims of starring intention that will fall off the page in due course.
