

Adams tops the scoresheet

By Dennis Fuller 10-10-2010

In glorious golfing conditions at Emerald Golf Club last Saturday, Hank Adams (23) shone like a beacon to lead the field home. His 42 stableford points won him the over-all gong and also the B Grade prize. This round will, no doubt, raise a little razor sharp interest from the handicapper.

Peter Stevens (12) hit the ground running and turned in a great performance to take out A Grade with 41 points.

Of the great unwashed, Con Whitlock was best with 38, Dean Shannon, John Carvill and Brian McCoy all had 37.

Peter Jones was nearest the pin on the first, Josh Tan was nearest on the 7th and 12th, Con Whitlock the 13th and Ross Martin trumped the field on the 18th to pick up the pro pin cash.

The ladies' event went down to the final green but Barbara Cook won the day from Grace Fergus who missed a short putt which would have caused a play-off or an arm wrestle at least.

Wednesday's Ordinarily Fractious Golf (OFG) using OFG handicaps was won by Moss Fuller who invented an obscure format which suited his good day where he wiped no holes and played six under his handicap.

Next Saturday a stroke event is planned. This is also the VGL Medallist of Medallists where all those who have won a VGL monthly medal vie for bragging rights and even more prestigious medal.
